5. Payment of the Services Fees.

In consideration of Your access to and utilization of the Services, You agree to pay Services fees ("Services Fees") to Us in accordance with the procedure stated in this Section 5.

5.1 Pricing Schedule. You agree to the pricing set forth on the pricing schedule made available or presented to You during the registration process or otherwise ("Pricing Schedule"). You may call customer service with any questions regarding Your pricing.

5.2 Changes to Services Fees; Additional Fees. You acknowledge that We may revise the Pricing Schedule upon at least thirty (30) days advance notice to reflect pricing changes mandated by Visa, MasterCard or other card associations ("Associations"). Customers for whom pricing is based on a pass-through of Association transaction fees acknowledge that any change to such fees by the Associations shall be effective immediately. We may increase Your Chargeback fee without notice in the event Your chargeback percentage exceeds the estimated industry chargeback percentage or if You are identified by one of the Association's Chargeback compliance programs. You are responsible for any fines, penalties, fees or assessments imposed by the Associations based on your improper use of the Services or noncompliance with rules of the Associations ("Association Rules"). In the event Your Visa and MasterCard transaction(s) fail to qualify for the interchange level contemplated in the rates set forth in the Application, You will be billed for the difference between the established rate and the higher rate and may be billed an additional fee for said nonqualified transactions, plus all fees, penalties, charges and assessments, if any, of Wells Fargo, Authorize.Net, Visa, and MasterCard. The fees set forth in the Pricing Schedule may be adjusted to reflect increases or decreases by MasterCard and/or Visa in Interchange, assessment or other MasterCard and/or Visa fees, or to pass through increases charged by third parties for on-line communications and similar items, if applicable. Additionally, all such adjustments shall be Your responsibility to pay and shall become effective upon the date any such charge is implemented by MasterCard and/or Visa or other third party. Additionally, each foreign Visa/MasterCard transaction submitted will be subject to an international transaction handling fee.

5.3 Discount Rates. We may charge You a Visa/MasterCard discount rate. Discount fees will be based on the gross deposited bank card sales drafts based on an estimated monthly volume and average credit card sale amount, as indicated on the Application. You agree that We may adjust the discount rate to the rate applicable to Your true monthly Visa/MasterCard volume and true average credit card sale amount, to be effective on the first day of the next succeeding month following failure to meet the requirements.

5.4 Designated Account for Deduction of Fees. As part of the enrollment process, You will be required to designate a checking account, also known as a Demand Deposit Account ("DDA") into which Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers will deposit the net settlement amounts as described below. You agree that Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net may initiate ACH credits and debits to that DDA and to any successor account that You may designate to Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net in writing in connection with such transactions, and in addition, that Wells Fargo and Authorize.Net may collect from that DDA the charges and fees due Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net under the Agreement, including penalties and chargebacks. You further authorize Wells Fargo and Authorize.Net to obtain from the institution at which the DDA is held (this may be a Wells Fargo Bank or another institution) information related to the DDA, including collected balance reports, and to obtain any information deemed by Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net to be reasonably necessary to process debit and/or credit entries to the DDA. Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers will deposit into the DDA funds received by Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers on Your behalf from Your customers purchasing the goods and/or services from You on a net settlement basis.

5.5 Insufficient Funds. Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers will initiate an electronic ACH debit of Your DDA for any outstanding Services Fees and charges against Your DDA following the attempted net settlement. In the event there are insufficient funds in Your DDA following the ACH debit attempt, Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers will issue a written invoice to You. The invoice must be paid by You within fifteen (15) days following the date of such invoice as instructed in the invoice. A late payment fee of $15 will be charged by Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers, and outstanding balances will accrue interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (18% per annum) or, if less, the maximum amount allowed by law. You will be liable to Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers for any collection costs or attorney fees that are incurred in the event action is taken by Wells Fargo and/or the Suppliers to collect any past due balance of Services Fees.

5.6 Withholding of Receivables as Reserve Fund; Recovery of Losses. Upon any Event of Default as defined in Section 15.2, or in any event that We suffer a loss in connection with processing Your transactions or identify transactions or patterns of transactions which in Wells Fargo's reasonable opinion may be fraudulent or constitute a credit risk to Wells Fargo, We may withhold amounts otherwise payable to You in order to recover such loss or potential losses and while we investigate such transactions or otherwise control Our financial exposure (such withheld amounts may be referred to as a "Reserve Fund"). Wells Fargo may also take such actions as are necessary to collect amounts owed to Us or needed to provide an adequate Reserve Fund wherever funds may be maintained. Wells Fargo is hereby authorized (and any related notice and demand are hereby expressly waived) by You, to set off, recoup and to appropriate and to apply any and all such amounts owing, funds held, account balances and other collateral (collectively, "Collateral") against and on account of Your obligations under this Agreement however arising ("Obligations"), whether such Obligations are liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent matured or unmatured. In the case of any Collateral consisting of a deposit account with a Wells Fargo Bank or any other financial institution, You hereby agree that Wells Fargo shall have control thereof and the depository will (and is hereby authorized to) comply with instructions originated by Wells Fargo directing disposition of funds in the deposit account without further consent by You. You agree to duly execute and deliver to Wells Fargo such additional instruments, documents and agreements as may be reasonably requested to perfect and confirm the rights of set off, recoupment, subordination and control over deposit accounts and other Collateral set forth in this Agreement. In cases of fraud or similar cause, no prior notice shall be required for Wells Fargo's actions under this Section 5.6, but Wells Fargo shall notify You in writing within three business days after effectuating a suspension of credits or other payments or taking a Reserve Fund under this Section, which shall state Wells Fargo's reason for the belief that such fraud or similar cause exists.

5.7 Reserve Account. You expressly authorize Us to establish a reserve account ("Reserve Account") pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Section. The initial amount of such Reserve Account shall be set by Wells Fargo, in Wells Fargo's sole discretion, based upon Your processing history and the potential risk of loss to Us. The Reserve Account shall be fully funded upon three (3) days' notice to You, or in instances of fraud or default, reserve account funding may be immediate. Such reserve account may be funded by all or any combination of the following: (i) one or more debits to Your settlement account or any other accounts held by Wells Fargo or any of its affiliates; (ii) one or more deductions or offsets to any payments otherwise due to You; (iii) Your delivery to Wells Fargo of a letter of credit; or (iv) if Wells Fargo so agrees, Your pledge to Wells Fargo of a freely transferable and negotiable certificate of deposit. Any certificate of deposit shall be issued by a financial institution acceptable to Wells Fargo and shall be in a form satisfactory to Wells Fargo. In the event of termination of this Agreement by any party, an immediate Reserve

Account may be established without notice in the manner provided above. Any Reserve Account will be held by Wells Fargo for the greater of ten (10) months after termination of this Agreement or for such longer period of time as is consistent with Our liability for credit card transactions or ACH electronic system transactions in accordance with Visa U.S.A., Inc. and MasterCard International Incorporated and any other credit card association (collectively "Association") rules and any National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA" rules). Your funds held in a Reserve Account may, at Wells Fargo's discretion, be held in a deposit account in Your name or in Wells Fargo's name, or in a commingled account for the reserve funds of Our clients, without involvement by an independent escrow agent. If Your funds in the Reserve Account are not sufficient to cover the chargebacks, adjustments, fees and other charges due from You, or if the funds in the Reserve Account have been released, You agree to promptly pay Wells Fargo such sums upon request.

5.8 Security Interest. To secure all of Your present and future Obligations to Us and Our affiliates (We and Our affiliates may be referred to collectively as "Secured Parties" and individually as a "Secured Party" for purposes of this Section 5.8) under this Agreement and under any other agreement for provision of related equipment or related services (collectively, "Obligations"), You hereby grant to Secured Parties liens and security interests in all of Your rights to and interests in the following, presently existing or hereafter acquired, and in any interest earned thereon and proceeds thereof (collectively, "Collateral"): (i) the Reserve Account, (ii) the DDA, (iii) any Reserve Fund maintained by Us under Section 5.6 above, (iv) any deposit account now or hereafter maintained by You with Wells Fargo Bank or any other Secured Party, (v) any of Your funds now or hereafter in the possession of Wells Fargo Bank or any other Secured Party, and (vi) all amounts now or hereafter owing to You under this Agreement, or under any other agreement for the provision of related equipment or services. In addition to any rights granted Secured Parties under applicable law, each Secured Party is hereby authorized (and any related notice and demand are hereby expressly waived), to set off, recoup and to appropriate and to apply any and all such amounts owing, funds held, account balances and other Collateral against and on account of Your Obligations, whether such Obligations are liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent matured or unmatured. In the case of any Collateral consisting of a deposit account with Bank, any other Secured Party or any other financial institution, You hereby agree that Secured Parties shall have control thereof and the depository will (and is hereby authorized to) comply with instructions originated by any Secured Party directing disposition of funds in the deposit account without further consent by You. You agree to duly execute and deliver to Secured Parties such additional instruments, documents and agreements as may be reasonably requested to perfect and confirm the liens, security interests in deposit accounts and other Collateral set forth in this Agreement. You agree that Secured Parties may file such financing statements in Your name describing any or all of the Collateral and take such other action as they may require in order to perfect their liens and security interests therein.

5.9 Audit. You hereby grant to Wells Fargo, the Suppliers and/or auditors the right of access to Your books and records and agree to provide assistance at all times during the term of this Agreement for the purposes of allowing Wells Fargo, the Suppliers and/or auditors to conduct an audit and/or verify Your compliance with this Agreement. Wells Fargo, the Suppliers and/or its auditors will not conduct an audit more than three times in any twelve month period and will give You at least five (5) days prior written notice of such audit. The cost of the audit will be borne by Wells Fargo or the Suppliers.

5.10 No Liability for Delays or Errors by Unrelated Third Parties. We will not be liable for any delays in receipt of funds or errors in debit and credit entries caused by third parties which are unrelated to Us including but not limited to any Association or NACHA or Your financial institution.

5.11 Non-Visa or MasterCard Issuers. For designated transactions from cards issued by American Express, Novus/Discover, Japanese Credit Bureau (JCB), Diner's Club/Carte Blanche, and other entities, these issuers may be responsible for settlement, chargebacks, and customer service and may charge a separate fee for these services.

6.1 Your Web Site and Access to Services. You are responsible for all costs and management related to Your access to and utilization of the Services, including, but not limited to the operation and management of all software, hardware and equipment. You acknowledge that You will be solely responsible for (i) Your product(s) and/or service(s); (ii) the Website content; (iii) all representations made in connection with product(s) and/or service(s); (iv) the content and nature of all promotions and advertising; (v) the quality of products and/or services offered by You or on Your Website; (vi) the conformity of Your products or services with any requirements of Association Rules or applicable law; and (vii) ensuring that Your products and services do not infringe or violate the copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights of any party.

6.3 No Internet Abuse. You will not engage in any form of Internet abuse, including but not limited to: (i) sending any kind of unsolicited or unwelcome email to a substantial number of network users, anywhere on the Internet; (ii) posting a single article or substantially similar articles to an excessive number of newsgroups or mailing lists; (iii) repeated or deliberate posting of articles that are off-topic according to the charter of the newsgroup or mail list where such articles are posted; and (iv) posting commercial advertising in a conference or newsgroup, unless it is specifically permitted to be posted within that group. You understand that Wells Fargo and the Suppliers may investigate any reported occurrence of potential Internet abuse and take appropriate action, which depending on the circumstances and severity of any such occurrence may include: (a) issuing a warning to You and taking necessary action to minimize any damage; (b) suspending Your right to access and use the Services; and/or (c) immediately terminating this Agreement.

6.4 Compliance with Laws, Rules, and Guidelines. You will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in connection with Your access and utilization of the Services, including expressly any and all Association Rules, any and all NACHA rules, or Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net procedures or guidelines as set forth in any Operating Guide, Program Guide, information available at wells Fargo secure.com or the Authorize.Net website, or other document provided to You or made available to You regarding proper use of the Service (any such document, a "Guideline"). 19. Governing Law and Dispute Resolutions

19.1 Governing Law. We have substantial facilities in the State of California and many of the services provided under this Agreement are provided from these facilities. Our Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California (without regard to its choice of law provisions). The exclusive venues for any actions or claims arising under this Agreement shall be the appropriate state and federal court located in Northern California or the State of Washington, and you hereby consent to the jurisdiction of such courts.

19.2 Disputes. Any Dispute between the parties arising out of, or relating to, the validity, construction, interpretation or performance of this Agreement that cannot be amicably resolved will be submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with the terms of this Section 19 (except as set forth in subsection 19.5 below). A "Dispute" shall mean any action, dispute, claim or controversy of any kind, whether in contract or tort, statutory or common law, legal or equitable, now existing or hereafter arising under or in connection with, or in any way pertaining to this Agreement. Any party may by summary proceedings, bring an action in court to compel arbitration of a Dispute. Any party who fails or refuses to submit to arbitration following a lawful demand by any other party shall bear all costs and expenses incurred by such other party in compelling arbitration of any Dispute.

19.3 Governing Rules. Arbitration proceedings shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") or such other administrator as the parties shall mutually agree upon. Arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the AAA Commercial Arbitration Rules. If there is any inconsistency between the terms hereof and any such rules, the terms and procedures set forth herein shall control. All Disputes submitted to arbitration shall be resolved in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code). The arbitration shall be conducted at a location in California selected by the AAA or other administrator. All statutes of limitation applicable to any Dispute shall apply to any arbitration proceeding. All discovery activities shall be expressly limited to matters directly relevant to the Dispute being arbitrated. Judgment upon any award rendered in an arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction; provided however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be a waiver, by any party that is a bank, of the protections afforded to it under 12 U.S.C. §91 or any similar applicable state law.

19.4 No Waiver; Provisional Remedies. No provision hereof shall limit the right of any party to obtain provisional or ancillary remedies, including, without limitation injunctive relief, attachment or the appointment of a receiver, from a court of competent jurisdiction before, after or during the pendency of any arbitration or other proceeding. The exercise of any such remedy shall not waive the right of any party to compel arbitration or reference hereunder.

19.5 Arbitrator Qualifications and Powers; Awards. Arbitrators must be active members of the California State Bar or retired judges of the state or federal judiciary of California, with expertise in the substantive laws applicable to the subject matter of the Dispute. Any Dispute in which the amount in controversy is $5,000,000 or less shall be decided by a single arbitrator who shall not render an award of greater than $5,000,000 (including damages, costs, fees and expenses). By submission to a single arbitrator, each party expressly waives any right or claim to recover more than $5,000,000. Any Dispute in which the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000 shall be decided by majority vote of a panel of three arbitrators; provided however, that all three arbitrators must actively participate in all hearings and deliberations.

19.6 Judicial Review. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, We may bring an appropriate action in small claims courts for any Dispute in which amounts in controversy are within applicable thresholds for such courts. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in any arbitration in which the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, the arbitrators shall be required to make specific, written findings of fact and conclusions of law. In such arbitrations, the parties shall have in addition to the grounds referred to in the Federal Arbitration Act for vacating, modifying or correcting an award, the right to judicial review of (A) whether the findings of fact rendered by the arbitrators are supported by substantial evidence, and (B) whether the conclusions of law are erroneous under the substantive law of the state of California. Judgment confirming an award in such a proceeding may be entered only if a court determines the award is supported by substantial evidence and not based on legal error under the substantive law of the state of California.

19.7 Damages. The arbitrator(s) will have no authority to award punitive or other damages not measured by the prevailing party's actual damages, except as may be required by statute. The arbitrator(s) shall not award consequential damages in any arbitration initiated under this Section. Any award in an arbitration under this Section shall be limited to monetary damages and shall include no injunction or direction to any party other than the direction to pay a monetary amount.

19.8 Miscellaneous. To the maximum extent practicable, the AAA, the arbitrators and the parties shall take all action required to conclude any arbitration proceeding within 180 days of the filing of the Dispute with the AAA. No arbitrator or other party to an arbitration proceeding may disclose the existence, content or results thereof, except for disclosures of information by a party required in the ordinary course of its business, by applicable law or regulation, or to the extent necessary to exercise any judicial review rights set forth herein. This arbitration provision shall survive termination, amendment or expiration of the Agreement or any relationship between the parties.

20. Entire Agreement, Amendments and Waivers

20.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and communications between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

20.2 Amendments. This Agreement may be amended by Wells Fargo and Authorize.Net at any time upon thirty (30) days notice from Wells Fargo and Authorize.Net to You.

20.3 Waivers. The failure of a party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the right to terminate this Agreement in the event of breach or default by the other party, will not be deemed to constitute a waiver by that party of its right to enforce each and every provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

21. No Partnership or Agency; Independent Contractors

No agency, partnership, joint venture or employment relationship is created between You and either Wells Fargo or Authorize.Net by way of this Agreement. In the performance of their respective obligations hereunder, the parties are, and will be, independent contractors. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed to constitute any party as the agent for any other party for any purpose whatsoever. No party will bind, or attempt to bind, any other party to any contract or the performance of any obligation, and no party will represent to any third party that it has any right to enter into any binding obligation on any party's behalf.
